

Recycling Guide

Items listed on this guide should be placed in your Recycling Container.

Item:

Recycled Into:

Other Facts:

Plastic & Glass Jars

- Should be rinsed.
- Labels may be left on.
- Caps may be left on.

New jars
Fiberglass
Reflective signs

A glass jar can go from a recycling bin to the store shelf in 30 days.

Beverage Cans

- Should be rinsed.

New cans
Aluminum foil
Airplane parts
Bicycles

Recycling 1 can saves enough energy to keep a 100 watt bulb burning for 4 hrs.

Food Cans

- Should be rinsed.
- Labels may be left on.

New cans
Appliances, car parts

Recycling 7 cans saves enough energy to power a 60 watt bulb for 26 hrs.

Plastic jars & Containers: #1-#7

- Should be rinsed.
- Covers may be left on.

Car bumpers
Rope, brush bristles

5 – 2 liter bottles produce enough polyester for one square yard of carpet.

Jugs

(example: milk jugs)

- Should be rinsed.
- Covers may be left on.

Picnic tables
Deck chairs
Recycling bins

1,050 milk jugs make a 6 foot plastic park bench.

Cardboard

- Should be broken down & bundled.

New & gift boxes
Drywall liner

Recycling 1 ton of cardboard saves 46 gallons of oil.

Paper, magazines food boxes, mail

- Placed in bin or bundled.

Coffee filters, insulation
Hospital gowns
Various paper products

Recycling paper products saves trees, energy and water over making these items from new.