Campaign Update

I am so excited this process has actually begun, and I'm just as excited to share what's happening!

As a quick update on the success of our expansion campaign that I have been reporting regularly, we have reached an incredible $518,040 to date and continue to raise more funds to be prepared for the "unexpected" that can easily occur with a project of this scope.

We have three blueprints being drawn up for options; 1. one story addition 2. one story with potential of going two story someday 3. two story addition.

We plan to get bids in March and contract in April. We will keep you updated as we move along with all that is happening. Remember, donations are STILL always welcome. We can never have too much to cover this tremendous happening (it really is happening!) and appreciate all the support that has been given. It is a vote of confidence for all the Brandon Public Library has done, continues to do, and will do not only for today but for tomorrow. And beyond!

Craft Day

The next adult class offered by the Library is a needlepoint class on Monday, Nov. 15, 2021 at 6:15 pm.

Fortunately but unfortunately, the class has reached its capacity of 20 persons prior to this newsletter release. We strive to offer a variety of children, youth & adults activities and will keep you posted of upcoming events!

We will take 5 names for a reserve list in case of any cancellations.
