

This drawing is a rendition of what the vision is for the small concession stand. The image below is a view from the infield of the south diamond. This view shows where the concession stand will be built. (Set back behind home plate)

This rendering was drawn by local artist Geraldine Buteyn. The Parks & Rec Committee would like to extend a big thank you to her for her time and talent in assisting with this rendition!

