Warm Up This Winter at Your Library!

As the chill of winter settles in, February is the perfect time to cozy up with a good book, explore new services, or join one of our fun community events. Whether you're seeking inspiration, knowledge, or just a place to relax, your library is here to help!

No School? Let's Play Wii!

When there's no school on February 13, stop by the library for some Wii fun! The Wii will be available to play during library hours, featuring games for 1-4 players. A 30-minute time limit may be in place if needed so everyone gets a turn. Drop in, play a game, and enjoy your day off at the library!

- Guitar Hero III (2 guitars)
- Dance Dance Revolution Hottest Party (with spare dance pad)
- Wii Sports
- Mario Party 8
- Rayman Raving Rabbids
- Mario Strikers
- Super Smash Bros. Brawl
- Mario Kart for Wii
- Boom Blox Bash Party
- Carnival Games
- Monster Jam: Urban Assault

Tax Forms Available at the Library

The public library has received state tax instruction booklets and forms, and they are now available for pickup.

Federal tax forms are expected to arrive soon, and we will make them available as soon as they do. Forms are located near the information desk—please stop by during regular library hours while supplies last.

Interested in Starting a Book Club?

The library is exploring interest in hosting a book club and is looking for an existing group or a volunteer willing to help get one started. We're flexible on days and meeting times, offer a comfortable conference room, and can provide copies of the selected book through the library. If you're interested in leading or bringing a group to the library, please contact us—we'd love to make it happen!
